Phyllis Hardwick, Executive Director
Community Capital Fund

Phyllis Hardwick is the Executive Director of Community Capital Fund (CCF), a Community Development Nonprofit that provides grants, technical assistance, and coaching to support under-resourced neighborhoods and businesses in the Greater Kansas City Metropolitan Area. A graduate of the University of Missouri, Phyllis began her career in education and has experience in finance, real estate development, and community engagement. She has remained engaged in civic service by serving on her neighborhood association, non-profit, and education boards. In her spare time, Phyllis enjoys running, cycling, and cheering on her beloved sports teams. Most importantly, she loves being a mom to her toddler son and her husband is great too.
