

Crystal Everett

Program Leader, Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation

Crystal Everett brings more than 15 years of experience in education and community engagement. As the Program Leader on the Real World Learning team for the Kauffman Foundation, Crystal is committed to advancing opportunities for local communities, with a focus on access and high-quality market value asset opportunities for students.