

Elisa Waldman

Vice President of Workforce Development at Johnson County Community College

Elisa Waldman, Vice President of Workforce Development at JCCC, leads non-credit programs serving 16,000 learners annually. Elisa is passionate about delivering innovative solutions to support industry, workforce, and community. With degrees from Harvard University and George Washington University Law School, Elisa also enjoys serving as Faculty in the JCCC Legal Studies program.