

John Resenhouse
President, KC Actors Theatre

Mr. Resenhouse, a native of Kansas City, has toured nationally with the Broadway productions of The Lion King and Noises Off and has performed leading roles at many of the nation's major regional theatres including the Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Hartford Stage, the McCarter Theatre, Arena Stage in Washington D.C., Cincinnati Playhouse, Repertory Theatre of St. Louis, Alabama Shakespeare Festival and the Utah Shakespearean Festival. Here at home, he serves as the Board President of Kansas City Actors Theatre and has directed and performed in many of their shows. He has also appeared locally at the New Theatre, Heart of America Shakespeare Festival, Kansas City Rep, Starlight, and the Unicorn, in roles ranging from Dracula to King Lear. His TV and movie credits include The Edge of Night, L.A. Law, thirtysomething, Who's the Boss and the original Candyman.