

Maria Meyers, Executive Director
UMKC Innovation Center

Maria is passionate about working collaboratively to build entrepreneurial communities. She heads the University of Missouri – Kansas City Innovation Center, supporting thousands of community members every year in starting and growing businesses. The center includes KCSOURCELink, a network of 230+ business resources. Across the country, her team has helped more than 100 communities build better environments for entrepreneurs.