

Marquita Brockman Taylor
CEO, MB Taylor Consulting

Marquita Taylor, MBA, is the CEO of MB Taylor Consulting, LLC, providing consulting services in the field of fund development and effective leadership. Marquita has more than 25 years of experience in fund development, community relations, marketing and special events for several non-profit organizations in the community, as well as experience from a managerial level for banking and finance in the corporate sector.

Marquita serves as president of the Santa Fe Area Council Neighborhood Association, Treasurer for the Community Resource Team, Appointed to the Jackson County, Missouri Memorial Wall Commission and the City of Kansas City, Missouri Neighborhood Tourism and Development Commission. Marquita holds board positions for Historic Kansas City and The Leroy Satchel Paige Family Home Corp., Inc.

Marquita received her bachelor's in management from UMKC and the University of Phoenix, Kansas City, and her master's in business administration. Marquita has received various awards and special recognition for her community service.