

Pam Kramer

Chief Executive Officer, KC2026

Pam Kramer is a proven leader in sports business and communications, with deep experience across global events, professional sports, and major brands. Her career includes 16 years at Sprint, where she was instrumental in shaping major sponsorships, including the 1994 FIFA World Cup USA. She later held senior leadership roles with the Kansas City Chiefs and served as transitional CEO of the Kansas City Current. Today, this proud KC native serves as CEO of KC2026, leading Kansas City's efforts to host the FIFA World Cup in 2026