

Tyler K. Smith, MD, MPH, FAAP

Associate Dean of Inclusive Excellence in the Office of the Learning Environment and Associate Professor of Pediatrics at UMKC School of Medicine

Tyler K. Smith, MD, MPH, FAAP is a board-certified general pediatrician. She is a graduate of Hampton University and the University of South Carolina School of Medicine. She completed residency and fellowship training at the University of Maryland Medical Center and Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, respectively. Her scholarly interests include advocacy; diversity, equity, inclusion, justice; healthcare disparities and inequities; mentorship, coaching, and sponsorship; medical education; leadership; and physician wellness. She currently serves as Associate Dean of Inclusive Excellence in the Office of the Learning Environment and Associate Professor of Pediatrics at UMKC School of Medicine. She is the Fellowship Director for the Academic General Pediatrics Fellowship Program at Children's Mercy Kansas City.